ARRE TED ON SUSPICION OF MURLER.-A ed yesterday by the Sheriff's officers on suspicion of complicity in the murder of Mr. John West, some time since. It will be recollected that Mr. West was overseeing for Joseph L. Rhem, Esq., at the time of his death, and was in the field watching the cotton thieves. They came altogether too soon for the unfortunate. On attempting to prevent their depredations he was ruthlessly shot down. Since that time nothing has been done for the apprehension of the murderers—that is, nothing successful. The officers received information yesterday that led them to believe that Ellison was one of the murderers, and accordingly he was arrested. The preliminary examination of the prisoner was taken before Justice Rixford, at the sheriff's office. The only witness examined, a negro man named Dillahunt, testified that on the evening of the murder her saw Ellison in company with four others, leave Pembroke ferry and go up the Trent river, in the direction of the place where the deed was perpetrated.
